

President's Message

Hello, I am Maria Redinger, your new IDAMHC President for 2016. For those of you who may not know me that well, I grew up in Hermiston/Pendleton, OR. I have a total of 6 brothers and 4 sisters. The youngest sister, Valerie Marshall, lives with me today. I met my husband, Casey Redinger, in my first year of college in Walla Walla, WA, at age 18. We moved to Colton, WA, in 2009, then to Eagle, ID. In 2012, that July we got married. I found the club's website online and attended my first show that September, where I first met Lois Cant and Gwynne Shaw. In 2013, we bought our home in Middleton, ID, and have been here ever since. We have made lots of friends and love the town. We are expecting our first child on June 28, 2016, and can't wait for him/her to meet everyone. I have been very involved in the club the last two years and am very excited for another year with the wonderful people we now have and only hope we keep growing. I am honored and proud to represent IDAMHC as your 2016 President! Let's Rock It!

Christmas Community Service

Lynne and Lee have been busy in the Emmett community with their horses. "Here we are at BiMart helping the Fire Dept to get people to donate toys or money for the needy kids. It was in the shade & we were so cold we gave it up at 3, but they had a big barrel plus a shopping cart full when we left, & money, so think it did ok. Shere Clark took the picture & her horse, Juliette is the one in the middle. Lynne's horse, (she got from Shere) is Sassy & mine is Patch."

Middleton Toyland Parade

IDAMHC made a fantastic showing at the Middleton Toyland Christmas parade on Dec. 12. Members participating included: Valerie, Donna, Lois, Pam, Pete, Kat, Susan W., Felicia, Cassie, Jane, Amy, Jamey, Lynne, and Lee. The cold day brought many windup horses, elves, and reindeer to town, and spectators commented often about the cuteness and costuming of the miniature horses. After having lined up in pairs for judging, as we awaited the start of the parade, the judge returned to award our club a blue ribbon!!! Yeah! The weather was perfect for a wintry day, with the pouring rain waiting until the parade had ended. Thanks to everyone for braving the weather and helping to earn the blue ribbon! Photos, taken by Lynne Wing and Pete MacFarlane, will soon be on the website slideshow "2015 Middleton Toyland Parade."
