Idaho Miniature Horse Club Newsletter

Maria Redinger, President

Heather Jaillett, Vice President

Valerie Marshall, Secretary Lynne Wing, Treasurer

Jane Steele, Robin Willeman, and Kelli Phillips, Directors

February, March and April minutes are included (in that order) because the last newsletter was in January.

Minutes of February 15, 2018 , meeting at Sunrise Cafe in Middleton, ID at 6:30 P.M.

Maria called the meeting to order at 6:31 P.M.

Those in attendance: Pam MacFarlane, Heather Jaillett, Lynne Wing, Robin Willeman, Shere Clark, Jamey Robbins, Donna Bernadelli, Jamie and LeeAnn O'Leary, Jaydyn and Jessie Hunting, Crystal and Katherine Siegmann, Shane and Karen Mettler, Maria Redinger, Valerie Marshall, Courtney, Sarah, and Kelli Phillips, Lois Cant, Christine Dredge, Tom and Linda Hughes. Guests: Penny and Ian Wood, and Janet Fries. January minutes were reviewed and approved by the club. Heather motioned for the minutes to be approved, Pam seconded.

Lynne gave the treasurer's report. January's ending balance was $4,607.98. Receivables was in the amount of $20.00 for a membership. Expenses of $147.08 were paid out which brought the bank balance to $4,480.90. Cash-on-hand is $50.00 in the possession of Valerie Marshall (secretary) which brings the February ending balance to $4,530.90. A motion was made by Kelli to accept the treasurer's report, Heather seconded.

Old Business

Points Committee: The committee was supposed to have all the new rules and forms done before the February meeting, but they couldn't agree on whether or not to make the "For Fun" award include open show points, or to take the show points out. So they brought the issue to the club for a vote. After some discussion the club voted that open show points be taken out of the "For Fun" award so that now it only includes Activities Points. Now the forms will be completed shortly and put up on the site so that people can use them.

Arenas: Shane brought Penny Wood, who also has an arena that she is willing to open up to our club for whatever use we may have for it. The parking area is still being worked on, stalling is not available, it is an outdoor arena that is crushed granite and "L" shaped. It is near highway 16 and the footing of the arena has been rested and settled over the winter. No restrooms available, and possible cost would be an exchange for lessons on driving.

Lyle and Stacy's arena still needs to be looked at as well, so the club came up with a committee that includes: Pam, Jessie, Katherine, Maria and Kelli, to get together and look over arenas that may become available.

Horse Expo: April 13-15. Jamey will find out more information about a possible demonstration for the Miniature Horse breed, and will also get sign up sheets ready for horses and people who want to help out.

Club Swag: Kelli had a layout of what people in the club could get from the Gildan brand in red and white. Ranging from: T-shirts, long sleeves, sweat shirts, pullovers, sweats, etc. A minimum of 24 items were needed to receive a certain lower price and a sign up sheet was also passed around.

New Business

Mini Hoofbeats 4-H club: Amy participated in the Horse Bowl with the Desperadoes 4-H club and got fifth place. The 4-H club also made Valentine's Day cards for Veterans and the veterans appreciated them very much.

WIF Awards: It was decided that the club would sponsor a High Point and Reserve High Point awards, it just needed to be decided what the awards would be. Katherine suggested a chair with writing on the back for High Point. The Reserve award could possibly be a chair as well, or something from Mike's Tack? The decision was tabled for the next meeting.

ISHSA travel trophy: To sponsor it would be $125.00, Donna motioned to continue the sponsorship of the award and Jamey seconded.

Schooling shows: ISHSA held their fundraiser show on February 16 (6 minis showed). Next horsey event is held by the WHIPS club for their Bomb Proofing play day on February 24th until 4 P.M., slots may already be filled. The 24th is also the same day as ISHSA's Year End Banquet which starts at 5 P.M..

Clinics: Lana Grieve from Star Point Horsemanship is having a clinic on May 5th and 6th. Auditors are welcome and there will also be a clinic for clipping your horse by Wild Streaks after the first day of Lana's clinic. For more information contact Jessie Hunting or Lana Grieve. Pam said that when payments are due she would like to sponsor two kids for the clinic.

Meeting locations: Recent places that were discussed still need to be called, Kelli suggested the Middleton Recreation Center and said she would call them. It was also discussed about possibly trying to have outside meetings or "play days" again, if weather permits.

Other News

The WHIPS club is having a beginners driving day on March 24th from 10-2 P.M at Birt Arena. This will be a time to learn their "language" and have a demonstration on driving dressage style, will be non-formal. More info to come.

The door prize was won by LeeAnn O'Leary.

Next meeting will be held on March 15th, at the Sunrise Cafe in Middleton, ID at 6:30 P.M.

Kelli motioned to adjourn the meeting, and Katherine seconded.

Respectfully submitted,

Valerie Marshall, Secretary

Old Business

Points Committee: Forms are now online, it was decided to have a "know how to" clinic about filling out the forms on March 31st at 1 pm at Kelli Phillips house. This is also when declaration for all awards are due.

Arena potentials: Not anymore news.

Horse Expo: Jamey reported that the board has let the Mini Club have a part of the opening on Friday night, approximately around 6:30-7 pm for 15 minutes and could possibly give us time on Saturday for 5 minutes. A schedule for people and horses at the booth has not yet been set up, but if you have any questions or want a spot, contact Jamey Robbins. Thursday night they will be setting everything up between 4-6 pm, help is always appreciated!

Club Swag: Kelli passed around paper for anymore possible orders, and it was discussed how the ordering process would proceed. Donna made a motion to have the club prepay for the swag and then those who ordered would pay back the club. Jamey seconded the motion and the club voted on the motion, passing it.

WISK: The club has sponsored two awards for the Western Idaho Summer Kickoff show that will be happening in Nampa on June 1-3rd. Felicia had purchased the two harness bags and brought them to display to the club and give to Jessie Hunting whom is putting on the show. The total for both bags came to $134.30, which Felicia asked to be reimbursed for. Heather motioned to have the club pay Felicia back for the awards purchased, and Maria seconded.

New Business

Mini Hoofbeats: Courtney, the president of the 4-H club, asked the mini club if they would allow the mini hoofbeats club to sell food and do a raffle basket at our show to raise money for shirts at the Western Idaho Fair. Jamey motioned to allow the mini hoofbeats to sell food and do a raffle, Heather seconded the motion and Katherine offered to donate some tack and other things for their raffle basket.

WIF: The club had decided to sponsor awards for the Western Idaho Fair's High Point and Reserve High Point Mini. It was decided to purchase cooler/chair backpacks for both (one with pockets, one without). Heather motioned to purchase those for the awards, Shane seconded. It was voted amongst the club and passed. Donna will get more information to Maria.

ISHSA: The mini club owes $125.00 to ISHSA for sponsoring the travel trophy again, and also $60.00 for the showing license. Heather motioned to pay both bills and Kelli seconded.

Idaho Horse Council: The club owed the horse council $50.00, Kelli motioned to pay the $50.00 and Lois seconded.

Reminders: TVPHC last schooling show is March 23rd, the WHIPS are having a beginner's driving audit/clinic on March 24th, Lana Grieve's clinic is coming up in May and first partial payment has been sent in. Lana's clinic will be held at SHH stables in Meridian, parking is limited, and Lana has a friend who will also be doing a clipping clinic for $20.00 per person but will clip your horse for $75.00. Lana will also be emailing everyone participating in the clinic with videos and more information. If you want to audit the clinic you don't need to worry about paying before hand but if you have any more questions, contact Jessie Hunting.

Dates held by the mini club: Originally the club was thinking about holding our show on June 9th, but between other clubs and events it was discussed to move the show back to September 15th and use the June 9th date as a driving clinic/driving playday. Kelli motioned to have the show September 15th and use June 9th for a driving clinic/playday. Felicia seconded the motion. It was also discussed that some people with ponies wanted to come to our clinics so as long as the equine is 46 inches and under they can come. The show committee needs to meet up ASAP to discuss details. The playday committee also needs to meet up ASAP since dates got moved up!

Other meeting locations: Somebody mentioned Yogurts in Meridian, Black Bear Inn in Boise, Shiloh Inn in Nampa, LaCosta in Emmett, and other places. People who thought of these places were asked to check into them a little bit and get more information.

Next meeting will be April 5th at 6:30 pm at the Sunrise Café in Middleton, ID.

Door Prize: The door prize went to Jane, she will bring the next one to the next meeting!

*Meeting was adjourned at 7:50 pm.

Felicia motioned to accept the treasurer's report, and Heather seconded.

Jamey asked the club for a small donation to decorate the booth at the Horse Expo. Pam motioned to give Jamey a $25.00 gift card, and Lynne seconded.

OLD BUSINESS

Points Committee: The how-to clinic at Kelli's house was small, so the committee thought that maybe they would try to have another clinic for points in July or August so that people can make sure they are doing it right.

Horse expo: Jamey reported that slots are filled up for the booth, and the demonstration starts at or around 6:15 pm on Friday. Having help to set up on Thursday and take down on Sunday would be appreciated! Jamey will hand out passes prior to the demo, and Donna will be narrating during it to give history and explanation about the miniature horse!

Club Swag: Kelli is trying to make sure she gets everybody updated if they want to purchase any swag. She will be calling people and hopes to place the order by Monday so that we possibly have swag to see by the next meeting! Those who ordered anything will get their purchases by the time they pay the club back for it.

Clinics: The Lana Grieve clinic is getting closer! Final payments were due to Jessie at the meeting and Saturday after the clinic is over for that day there will be an after party to celebrate the Kentucky Derby!

W.I.S.K.: The show is approved for AMHA and AMHR now. There was a copy of the show book that went out with wrong class numbers! Make sure you check for any recent updated show books and check your numbers. Any sponsors are still needed and appreciated!

NEW BUSINESS

Mini Hoofbeats: The 4-H club will be holding a silent auction and raffle at the WISK show to raise money for polo shirts and other things that may be needed for the Western Idaho Fair. An idea was put out there that the club "fill up the cooler" for the 4-Hers.

W.I.F. Awards: The awards, cooler chair backpacks, will be ordered and ready to see come next meeting.

Reminders: April 13th-15th is the Idaho Horse Expo, April 19th-21st is the ISHSA Spring Double Point Show, and May 5th-6th is the Lana Grieve clinic.

Play Day Committee: The committee was looking for ideas from the club about topics that they should focus on during the clinics/playdays. Ideas were that people should be separated by beginner/advanced, and to have a judge there for people to ask them questions about what they look for in a driving horse. If you have any suggestions, you can email Heather.

Meeting Locations: Members haven't had much luck trying to find a new place for our club to have meetings at, but Kelli got in contact with the Community Center in Middleton where it would be $20.00 for the whole day. There are three rooms, a gym that can be rented for $10.00 an hour (if not reserved), and 5-6 tables that seat 8 people each. Christine offered to watch the kids during the meetings in the gym or another room. Dakota (runs the place) will also be there to keep a watch on any children. Lynne motioned to have the next meeting at the Community Center and Kelli seconded. An address will be emailed out shortly so that people know where to go.

Jane forgot the door prize! Uh-Oh!

Next meeting will be May 10th at the Community Center in Middleton at 6:30 pm (bring your own food.)

Meeting was adjourned at 7:24 pm.

The Best Birthday Party Ever

Submitted by Jamey Robbins

Donna and I hosted a horse themed birthday party for twin girls, one of whom is a former student of mine, and whose mom works with Donna. They got to brush and lead all the minis and go for a ride on the carts pulled by Joey and Shady. Many of the kiddos said it was the best birthday party they've ever been to.

The May 10 meeting will be at the Sunrise Cafe in Middleton (NOT the community center).

Both of the shows (AMHR & AMHA) for the Western Idaho Summer Kickoff were approved! Yay!!

4-H News

Information from Jan Maxie and submitted by Christine Dredge

*HIPPOLOGY -- I'll know by Friday night latest (& hopefully by Thurs night) if there will be an official county contest, or if everyone will advance straight to District, SO - I'm turning in the form & once I know if we're paying the contest fee or the practice fee, I'll pay for everyone & then let you know so you can pay me back. :) Date is Sat. 4/21 whether it's an official contest or a practice one -- even if practice, please plan on participating. :) IF you'd like to participate as an individual for practice (either junior or senior) you can do that too.

*District is May 5th (Lana Grieve clinic), so if your child can't go to district let Jan know. Hippology on April 21st counts as 1 of 2 needed qualifiers for fair.

*Horse declarations are due by the end of the month. Contact Christine Dredge for the form. You can declare several horses but can only take up to 2 to fair. (declare as many as you need in case your horse is lame/sick, etc. and can't go to fair).

*Desperados 4-H riding practices are Monday night's 6:30 @ TMRC(Ten mile riding club arena) I have a mini group that meets there as well. We also have a cloverbud group that meets once a month. For those who live too far away or can't come on Monday night I have a small group that meets @ my house (Christine Dredge) in Nampa 4907 Stamm Ln. on Wednesday 6:30.

~~Let us know of any activities our kids might like to participate in and will share it with the club.~~

The Tale of the Pig Stick

Submitted by Pam MacFarlane

Upon registering for the Lana Grieve clinic, I discovered that a stick is required to encourage the horse's movement in the desired direction. Finding out that the stick was supposed to be 3.5 feet long, I decided to opt for something a little shorter, since my height is less than 5 feet, and concerned that I might not be able to keep the end of the stick off the ground with my left hand while leading the horse with my right. Christine suggested a pig stick because it works for her kids.

So, I arrived at D&B, not on the usual busy Tuesday (Senior Discount Day), but Wednesday, and the store was eerily quiet, which turned out to be a good thing. Having picked up the pig stick and needing new clipper blades, I squinted at the blades through the glaring glass case, fidgeting with the pig stick (if you aren't familiar with this stick, it's simply a sturdy piece of PVC in a choice of colors). Well, I put my little finger in the end of the pig stick, and guess what? My finger was stuck. Horrified (embarrassed is way too mild), I approached the cashier, asking if I could take the stick in the restroom to put soap on my finger. The cashier suggested a lotion that D&B is now stocking, quickly took a bottle from the shelf, and squirted it on my finger, then twisted. Ouch! One more squirt on the other side of my finger, and the pig stick was free.

After thanking the cashier and leaving the pig stick in her care, I asked for help with the blades and did buy a couple along with the pig stick. Upon exiting the store with my purchases, I assured the cashier that I was happy to have provided some afternoon entertainment. In retrospect, I should have purchased the lotion just in case You never know what might happen at the clinic!

Treasure Valley Whips Beginner Driving Clinic

Donna and I were asked to be one of the presenters for the beginning driving clinic. Topics discussed were safety, harness parts and choosing a harness, how to harness, different types of carts, dressage pattern, cones pattern, and information on Combined Driving Events (CDE). The clinic was well attended and seemed to be appreciated by the beginners. Joey got to be one of the demo horses. He was a good boy when we demonstrated how to put on the harness and cart and he even got to demonstrate the cones course. He was also a good boy when we had a harness malfunction and I had to stop to put the trace back on when a leather piece broke... a good example for the importance of a nice horse when problems happen. And it was also a good example of why certain things are done, like capturing the trace in the hold back strap.

Here are the pics I took of the neat Marathon carriages from the Whips driving clinic. Of the people that spoke at the clinic, Mary Van De Bogart was the easiest for me to hear and understand. I am so glad to have gone, and I so appreciated the TV Whips putting the clinic together. The pictures I have included are mostly of the Marathon carriages as they were the most beautiful and well-made of the group. For the most part the Marathon carriages are used for CDE (carriage driving eventing) but I couldn't stop drooling over them!

Horse Expo Booth and Presentation, Friday, April 12

Jamey organized a terrific group of helpers for erecting, decorating, and staying at the shared IDAMHC and ISHSA booth at the Horse Expo. Both youth and adult IDAMHC members and their horses participated in the Friday evening presentation, demonstrating the capabilities of Miniature Horses, from driving, in-hand obstacles, and jumping, to wearing costumes and providing comfort. Donna's excellent narration, written by Jamey, really did let people know about our little ones. Hopefully, this will be a part of the next Expo, too!
