Those in attendance: Valerie Marshall, Maria Redinger, Donna Gramarossa, Jamey Robbins, Donna Bernardelli, Sharon Dudley, Felicia Humpherys, Jane Steele, Jennifer Green, Tania Laycock, Rene Gunderson, Robin Willeman, Tamara Cook, and Heather and Jim Bunting.

June's secretary minutes were reviewed. Heather motioned to accept the minutes as they were published, and Jennifer seconded it. Motion passed by the club.

Outstanding checks are $388.40 to IBBA for Buckles. $50.00 is still with the secretary.

Ending balance for June is $5,665.52.

Heather made a motion to accept the report, and Felicia seconded. Motion passed by the club.

OLD BUSINESS

-Star Parade: Voting is open online through July 18th. There were lots of people at the parade spectating, and that brought up discussions of over crowding in the streets and stressing that horses should be "bomb-proof" and used to noises, children, etc. Dressing up the horses the same and the members the same was good idea amongst the members.

-Mini Open Show: Maria would like to collect as many silent auctions as possible before the show. There will be a set up for the silent auction on Friday night between 6-7pm. Jamey is taking pre-entries until the day of the show, and then the rest will be done in-hand on the grounds with Barb Miskell.

NEW BUSINESS

– Points Tracking: Maria asked if any members would be interested in setting up a day to go over points tracking and see if anyone had questions. There were a few people interested, so Valerie said she would try to make a date work in early August.

-LEAD Program: Maria wanted to see if the club members would be interested in pairing up with the LEAD program when they are at tents in front of other businesses, and to bring minis for people to pet. It was discussed that more information was needed and if this would be something the club would have to make insurance aware of.

-SWAG: Maria has sent an email to Pullover Prints and should know prices soon, so please keep a lookout for an email with more information.

-"Redneck Showmanship": Felicia brought up a video she saw of a club doing "Redneck Showmanship" and thought that the Halloween Haunting should have a class like it. The club thought it was a fun idea and the committee would take it into consideration.

Western Idaho Fair News

Driving at the fair submitted by Jamey Robbins

I showed both days at the fair in every class. Despite the heat it was fun. I showed Shady in the horse division and Joey in the VSE division. Both of them worked really hard for me. We brought home a bucket of horse supplies, three trophies, and a buckle.

I'm most proud of the buckle. The buckle was for the 125th anniversary of the fair and the recipient was the one that received the highest super reinsmanship score out of all the drivers. Joey and I earned that buckle.

Love that little mini of mine.

Heather and Jim Bunting were there to help me with both horses and to keep Donna and me hydrated. It's so nice to have such great friends!

At the Fair with Spaz and Malibu submitted by Tamara Cook

I took two horses to the Fair's driving show. My own mini Hyde Away Farm Hot Rod George, aka "Spaz" and Sue Todd's Friesian gelding, "Malibu". We had a great show with the smallest and tallest horses there.

Malibu won the Concours de Elegance trophy, as he was gorgeous. Spaz won his reinsmanship freestyle class which was extra special to me as the song "Okay" by the Piano Guys was my motto most of this year dealing with the broken hip. We won both turnouts and progressive cones classes. Both Sue and I were very excited as the quality of horses and drivers was strong.

Spaz also showed in the regular light horse show on Friday and blew my socks off! He went Grand Champion mini, hi point overall mini and high point in hand trail mini. The club sponsored the beautiful over all buckle.

Bernie submitted by Valerie Marshall

This year at the Western Idaho Fair I showed Bernie. We did 4 year old gelding mini with 4 others and placed 3rd! Then we did Showmanship ages 19-35 (with big horses) and didn't place (at least 21 competitors), but Bernie did really well! And lastly we did All In Hand Ranch Trail (with big horses) and placed 8th out of at least 24! We still ended up getting Reserve Grand Champion Mini! Thank you to Idaho Miniature Horse Club for sponsoring!

I really hope to be driving either Chance or Bernie next year, and we will see if we make it to the driving portion of the fair, because it is always so much fun!!

We didn't get any pictures this time since it was just Maria and I going back to back to stay out of the heat! But here are my ribbons and reserve champion award, as well as the horses!

Driving Class Entries At the Fair submitted by Robin DeLong

There were 3 horses on Tues., Aug. 23, and 4 horses on Wed., Aug 24, and 2 ponies both days and 6 minis.

Pleasure Driving, Tuesday, August 23: Donna Bernardelli and Handy, and Robin DeLong and Skye, were the ponies. On Tues., Donna and Handy were winning the rail classes. Handy was stopping and standing when the judge asked for a halt. Donna was cool and collected. I was struggling to keep Skye cool and collected. Finally at the Musical freestyle Skye agreed to listen to me a little bit. The music is so fun, and I think she enjoyed it. Donna and Handy did a great musical freestyle also. Everyone who did the musical freestyle did a great job. Donna and Handy had 3 firsts and 1 second. Robin and Skye won the musical freestyle. We had 3 seconds and I first.

Obstacle Driving, Wed., August 24: Wed. morning was the cones classes. The first class was Gambler's Choice. Skye and I did the easy options and Skye listened well, and we smoked the obstacles. Handy was not impressed and did not listen. Donna was disappointed when she had to leave the arena.

While the amazing ground crew was setting up for Progressive Cones, Donna and Handy followed Skye and Robin back into the arena. We drove around in big circles, visiting with the ground crew, looking at scary things until Handy and Donna felt comfortable again. When it was our turn, Skye was right there ready for any slight command, and we made it through until the last cone, which we hit. It was very narrow! We stayed in the arena so Handy could see us. When he was in and relaxed, Skye and I left the arena. Donna did great but hit a cone before the end of the course. (I think she hit cone 3 but I can't remember and don't want to hurt her feelings.) The next class was Timed Cones. Skye and I were together and going fast. No balls down or time penalties. Again, we helped Handy get into the arena. Donna and Handy were calm and steady. I'm not sure who won that class.

The final class was Double Jeopardy. One driver drives the cones 1,2,3, etc, the second driver goes backwards 10,9,8, etc. My friend and I are defending champions from last year. Skye was pulling hard with two old ladies in the cart. Kathy was fast but knocked down one ball. I drove backwards and didn't hit any balls. Our time was good also. Donna had Jamey Robbins, who is a great driver, as her partner. Both Donna and Jamey drove perfectly and didn't have any balls down. I think they won that one. Most drivers, because of the hot sun, put their horses away. Skye stood in the shade of the horse stalls. Standing is a good exercise for Skye. In the end Skye and I won High Point Pony and Senior Driver trophies. I thought Donna had won it! Donna said Skye and I won by two points! Next year is going to be a battle. Despite the hot sun, I had a great time visiting with the other drivers and helpers. The Friesian horse was amazing to watch and Tamara Cook did an amazing job driving him. They won the Concours de Elegance. Tamara was beautiful in her red hat and jacket driving a beautiful black horse. Jamey Robbins and Joey won the 125 Anniversary of the fair belt buckle. Beautiful buckle! I'm not sure who won the horse and mini classes. I heard Jamey and Joey's names a lot. Tim Phillips was driving the only mule. They did a great job too.

Lee Clark who is 85!! came and drove her mini, Jackpot in the cones classes!! Jackpot is a great boy and takes good care of Lee. Becky Marchbanks had her pair of minis, Sugar and Stormy. She is a great driver and fun to watch. Kat Mautz was driving her son's mini and was having a good time and is a good driver.

The biggest complaint I heard was the heat. Amanda Horton did a great job as superintendent. All the helpers and ground crew were amazing. The horsemanship is so good. Everyone thought of their horse and pony first.

What impressive representation of the small horse world by our members at this year's Western Idaho Fair!

Many photos are available at carriesigglin.smugmug.com.
