 - Expenses were $1967.78
 - Profit was $2537.15, minus club portion of buckles, which is tbd.
 - Karla Post donated $100 to the auction, but it went to the general income?? Need to verify the venmo.

 - Expenses $60.07
 - 91 auction items donated. 28% was tack.
 - Approximately half of the items were picked up by high bidders at the show, leaving the remaining items to be packed up, and stored pending pick up arrangements.
 - Left-over items (no bids) will be donated to the tack sale for youth.
 - For 2026, Kelli / auction team to explore ways to
 - prepare baskets farther in advance, and possibly have a donation cut-off date. Goal is to reduce last minute scrambling to get things ready for the auction tables.
 - minimize overlapping donations (too much of any one type of item)
 - possibly develop / assign donation types / basket concepts – “adopt a basket” to donate
 - find a better way to deliver items to the high bidders.
 - Set minimum bids
 - Make a “Kids Corner” area.
 - Stagger auction end times to increase / spread bidding out over the entire auction items.
- Eagle Library Barnyard Day – everything went well, we had plenty of horses again this year!
- Western Idaho Fair – Tess Eastman needs more drivers for the fair.
- Tack Sale (Aug 9)– Jennifer G & youth committee need more vendors, and more help setting up day prior.

- Youth Committee
 - needs another member – Maria R volunteered to help.
 - Photo Shoot Fundraiser – Only one spot was purchased, so earnings of $30.
Discussing holding another chance in September at Jennifer Smith’s

- Eagle Harvest Festival – October 11 from 10-4. Jamey will find out if we can do a booth similar to the Horse Expo. We need to have volunteers cover 2 hour periods with their horses.
